[1] The composition and WL courses that are required and their sequence depend on a student's ACT English score. See the English Composition and WL Courses Enrollment Guidelines.

[2] If ENGL 250 is counted as a General Education course, the student must take one additional English elective course. (ENGL 250 cannot count for both Gen Ed credit and as an English elective.)

[3] Students should seek advisement from the minor department to find out if any of their required minor courses are offered only in the fall or in the spring or if there are any recommended sequences that students should follow.

[4] Students can take either ENGL 346 in the fall, or they can take ENGL 352 in the spring.

[5] Literature electives (6 credit hours)
Selected from literature courses numbered 500 and above; at least three credit hours must be American. Recommendations:

- Take ENGL 304 before any literature classes 500 and above.
- Take ENGL 230 and 304 before any American literature classes 500 and above.
- Take ENGL 241, 242, and 304 before any British literature classes 500 and above.

[6] Students can take either ENGL 352 in the fall or ENGL 346 or ENGL 751 or ENGL 753 in the spring. Students may take ENLG 751 (Senior Fiction Writing) in the spring of either their Junior or Senior year, but it must be taken after ENGL 451.
