Section II

As a Pittsburg State University student employee, I understand and agree to the following:

- This and any other future student employment appointment is not a guarantee of employment and is not a guarantee of earnings since either employer or employee can terminate this appointment at any time.
- This and any other future student employment appointment is restricted to employment in the accounting unit identified. The Director of Student Financial Assistance may amend the amount of total earnings of any employee who receives aid from a federal program at any time during the appointment period.
- Before beginning work for a new appointment, I must personally present this appointment form to the Student Employment Office, 202 Horace Mann. I must also bring acceptable I-9 documentation.
- Any funds received under the College Work Study Program will be used solely for expenses related to attendance at Pittsburg State University.
- I will abide by current Pittsburg State University student employment regulations and will maintain full-time enrollment.
