

Rumble gives high school seniors taste of PSU

High school seniors will get a taste of college life at Pittsburg State University this Saturday during Rumble in the Jungle '05 – Senior Saturday. The annual event gives students considering PSU a chance to meet faculty, tour the campus and residence halls, eat in the campus cafeteria and attend a Pitt State football game.

The day's activities begin at 1:30 p.m. with registration in Grubbs Hall. Following registration, students and their families will have an opportunity to meet PSU President Tom Bryant.

Beginning at 2:30 p.m., students and their families will participate in an academic fair and tour the campus. Academic departments will be open from 4-5 p.m. Sororities and fraternities will open their houses for tours at the same time and several students who live in the campus residence halls will participate in a panel discussion.

There is a $5 registration fee for each student participant and for each additional guest. For the students, their $5 fee includes a ticket to that evening's football game in Carnie Smith Stadium. Other guests may purchase football tickets separately on the day of the event.

For information or to register for Rumble in the Jungle, please call the Office of Admission at 620-235-4251 or visit the office Web site at www.pittstate.edu/admit.
