

PSU announces scholastic honors

The Registrar's Office at Pittsburg State University has released the names of those students who graduated with university scholastic honors in fall semester commencement ceremonies in December. There are three levels of university scholastic honors: Summa Cum Laude, Magna Cum Laude, and Cum Laude.

University scholastic honors are based on the student's cumulative grade point average at the time of the first baccalaureate graduation. To graduate Summa Cum Laude, a student must have a cumulative grade point average equal to or greater than 3.9500. To graduate Magna Cum Laude, a student must have a cumulative grade point average equal to or greater than 3.9000. To graduate Cum Laude, a student must have a cumulative grade point average equal to or greater than 3.8500.

The fall 2004 university scholastic honors graduates are:
