for which you are being recognized

Initiated into Phi Kappa Phi honor society. Founded in 1897 at the University of Maine, Phi Kappa Phi is the nation's oldest, largest, and most selective all-discipline honor society. Membership in Phi Kappa Phi is by invitation and requires nomination and approval by a chapter. The upper 10 percent of senior level undergraduate students and junior level undergraduate students with a 4.0 GPA were eligible for membership. Graduate students with a 4.0 GPA and at least 24 graduate semester hours also qualify, as do faculty and professional staff who have achieved scholarly distinction.
