The Kelce College of Business is accredited by the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business International. Accreditation represents “the highest standard of achievement for business schools, worldwide. Institutions that earn accreditation confirm their commitment to quality and continuous improvement through a rigorous and comprehensive peer review.” Less than 5% of the business colleges in the world achieve accreditation.

Pittsburg State University’s Kelce College of Business is currently listed in the “Best 295 Business Schools,” a guidebook published annually by The Princeton Review. The Review contacted more than 19,000 MBA students at AACSB-accredited MBA programs in the world to solicit opinions about what they consider to be the best business colleges in the world. The Princeton Review has also recognized the PSU Kelce College of Business as the #5 Most Family Friendly based on student assessment of: how happy married students are, how many students have children, how helpful the business school is to students with children, and how much the school does for spouses of students.
