"Jump Start" Master of Arts in Communication Admission Request

The Jump Start Master of Arts Program in the Department of Communication allows undergraduate students to take graduate coursework in the final two semesters of their senior year if they meet the following criteria:

- Less than 30 hours left in their undergraduate degree program
- Cumulative GPA of 3.5 or higher
- Conditionally admitted into the Graduate School
- Approved for the Jump Start program by the Department of Communication

Once admitted into the Jump Start program, an undergraduate student may take up to 9 credit hours of graduate coursework. Students must maintain a 3.0 average in their graduate courses. The Jump Start hours apply only to the MA program and not the undergraduate degree; "double dipping" is not permitted.
