CABARET

Book by Joe Masteroff / Music by John Kander / Lyrics by Fred Ebb

Directed by Cynthia Allan / Musical Direction by Barbara York

Oct 18-21, 2018 • Miller Theater–Bicknell Family Center for the Arts

Curtain: Thurs.–Sat.: 7:30 p.m. • Sat. & Sun. Matinees: 2 p.m.

One of the most popular, yet dark, American musicals. In a 1920’s Berlin nightclub, a garish Master of Ceremonies welcomes the audience. With his bawdy songs as commentary, CABARET explores the dark, heady, and tumultuous life of Berlin’s natives and expatriates as Germany slowly yields to the emerging Third Reich.

THE REVENGE OF THE SPACE PANDAS

OR BINKY RUDICH AND THE TWO-SPEED CLOCK

By David Mamet / Directed by Megan Westhoff

Feb 21–24, 2019 • Miller Theater–Bicknell Family Center for the Arts

Curtain: Thurs.–Sat.: 7:30 p.m. • Sat. & Sun. Matinees: 2 p.m.

This comedy has been a staple of the Chicago theatre scene for years. Often described as the funniest and most entertaining children’s play written, the story centers on Binky, his friend Viv, and a sheep named Bob as they confront the Giant Space Pandas. The humor appeals to audiences of all ages. Bring the family and join us for this wild comedy.

HOUSE OF BLUE LEAVES

By John Guare / Directed by Linden Little

April 25-28, 2019 • Miller Theater–Bicknell Family Center for the Arts

Curtain: Thurs.–Sat.: 7:30 p.m. • Sat. & Sun. Matinees: 2 p.m.

A no-talent songwriter, his depressed wife, his mistress, and a visit from the Pope lie at the center of this absurdist farce set in 1965. The play reflects a gracefully skewed vision of lives obsessed with celebrity. A painfully funny anachronistic comedy of the time that rings true today.
