

PITT STATE THEATRE

A Doll's House (2019)

Silent Sky (2020)

2020-2021 Season

THE BACCHAE (Virtual Production) • Oct. 22-25, 2020

By Euripides / Translated by Henry Hart Milman / Directed by Linden Little

One of Euripides' later Greek tragedies, The Bacchae centers on the story of the spurned god Dionysus returning home to Thebes seeking revenge against the new King Pentheus. Conceived as a staged reading in a rock 'n' roll style, this reimagining envisions the god Dionysus as a pop star begging for the adoration of his hometown. See this modern twist on a historic tale where deadly consequences can't be escaped.

THE WINDSHIELD AND THE BUG (Virtual Production) • Dec. 3-6, 2020

Conceived and Directed by Cynthia Allan / Original Material by Advanced Performance Ensemble

There comes a time in all our lives when we figure out not everything can go our way. Join us for this improvisation about the lifelong learning curve that is part of every human experience. What could possibly go wrong?

THE WOLVES • Feb. 25-28, 2021

By Sarah DeLappe / Directed by Gil Cooper

Thursday – Saturday @ 7:30 p.m. • Saturday & Sunday @ 2 p.m.

Dotty and Bill Miller Theater • Bicknell Family Center for the Arts

This finalist for the 2017 Pulitzer Prize in Drama provides a quick, hilarious, and unflinching look at nine female "warriors" of a girls' indoor soccer team as they navigate the large struggles of a modern world amid smaller battles of personal identity and relationships. A critic's pick of the New York Times, who says every scene emanates, "the scary, exhilarating brightness of raw adolescence."

VANYA AND SONIA AND MASHA AND SPIKE • April 22-25, 2021

By Christopher Durang / Directed by Megan Westhoff

Thursday – Saturday @ 7:30 p.m. • Saturday & Sunday @ 2 p.m.

Dotty and Bill Miller Theater • Bicknell Family Center for the Arts

Adult siblings Vanya and Sonia live in their family home and spend their days bickering and complaining about their lives when unexpectedly, their movie star sister, Masha, arrives with her much younger boyfriend. Hilarity ensues in this winner of the 2013 Tony Award for Best Play when the already strained sibling relationships are further complicated by a cleaning lady who predicts the future, a star-struck neighbor, and a disastrous costume party.
