2008-2009 Season

THE UNINVITED

By Tim Kelly; adapted from Dorothy Macardle's
Classic Ghost Story – Directed by Cynthia Allan

Oct 30-Nov 1, 2008, Pittsburg Memorial Auditorium
Curtain: 8 p.m.

In 1942, siblings Pam and Roddy Fitzgerald purchase a charming English cottage for a suspiciously low price. What secrets does the house hold? Why do Pam and Roddy feel they aren't alone? Join us on Halloween weekend for this suspenseful tale of jealousy and revenge.

ONE-ACT PLAYS

Student Directed

Dec. 5-6, 2008, PSU Studio Theatre
Curtain: 7 p.m.

Who wants their final exam put in front of the public? Student directors, that's who! Produced by the COMM544 Stage Direction class, these short plays are FREE of charge!

tempODYSSEY

By Dan Dietz – Directed by Gil Cooper

March 5-8, 2009, PSU Studio Theatre
Curtain: Evenings 8 p.m.; Matinee 2 p.m.

An office temp worker, an Appalachian chicken farm, and a black hole connecting Seattle to Atlanta...contemporary cubicle life with epic Greek overtones...Homer meets the Brothers Grimm and Stephen Hawking...hmmmm... hilarious AND horrifying! For Mature Audiences.

LOOK BACK IN ANGER

By John Osborne – Directed by Linden Little

April 30-May 3, 2009, PSU Studio Theatre
Curtain: Evenings 8 p.m.; Matinee 2 p.m.

The groundbreaking and controversial 1956 "kitchen sink" drama that established the voice of an angry and disaffected generation. Osborne's play resonates more than ever in our current political and economic climate. For Mature Audiences.
