Old Business

Update on Collaboration with Tilford on creating a diversity resource Tilford is open to collaboration, but had many questions about purpose. What do we hope to gain from the resource curating? Who is our main audience?

Discussion about creating a database that could be easily accessed, providing information about diversity and multiculturalism to both students and professors. Eric Rojas suggested that database could be a website with resources, an organized site for anyone needing information. Deatrea Rose pointed out that Tilford does have a Canvas page with a lot of resources. She said that, instead of starting a new repository, a link could be included on Canvas and titled with the subcommittee for a "one-stop shop." Some discussion about purpose and about the usefulness of a calendar and who might curate it. Jessica said she will ask Jorge Leon at the next Tilford meeting if he has any suggestions for building this kind of resource.

New Business

Tunnel of Oppression:

Stephanie Spitz is looking for volunteers to help plan the Tunnel of Oppression in April: https://docs.google.com/forms/d/e/1FAIpQLScPbWZh_bhTdpnhOHwaT8X7hVdCwb4SYDSwTRRR4Tog4iH-lA/formResponse

Emely Flores said the event would be in person, and participants, as they walk through the tunnel, will encounter in each space different kinds of oppression. Emely stressed that while there is oppression, there is also hope—the light at the end of the tunnel—learning, activism, volunteering, and so on. Volunteers can help with one side or both.

Jessica said the next meeting will be February. Links below are for upcoming events. She encouraged committee members to share any thoughts they might have in the interim via email.

President's Report – CoFSP Freedom of Expression Draft

Revised Draft Nov 18

The historical purpose of universities is to engage students and the greater academic community to empower them to confront, challenge, evaluate, and think critically about new ideas and how they may be used to solve age-old questions. Mere exposure to ideas does not serve that mission. When institutions support and encourage full and open discourse and the robust, respectful exchange of ideas and perspectives, students and the academic community at large feel more open about questioning assumptions, testing beliefs, and refining knowledge. This kind of atmosphere should be created in classrooms: Instructors have the power to determine the curriculum and pedagogical approach that advances their educational goals, as well as to determine what may hinder those goals. Academic freedom guarantees the right of faculty to teach, write, and publish without fear of censorship.

The Council of Faculty Senate Presidents reaffirms its commitment to the first amendment rights of faculty, staff, and students to express their diverse and often conflictual viewpoints and its commitment to protect students from hostile educational environments that adversely affect students' educational opportunities. A hostile educational environment substantially disrupts, or materially interferes with, a university's educational mission. Thus, the protection of free expression on our campuses is coextensive and coterminous with the First Amendment. Our commitment to freedom of expression is paired with our obligation to uphold and protect the dignity of all members of our university communities in our classrooms and in our communal spaces.

A commitment to freedom of expression is not incompatible with a commitment to diversity and to nurturing a positive and collaborative environment where everyone can thrive. On the contrary, the ability to express and debate our divergent beliefs and ideas is fundamental to the personal learning and growth needed for society to progress as a whole. Similarly, a commitment to protect the free expression rights of faculty, staff, and students is not incompatible with a commitment to protect individuals from expression that constitutes severe and pervasive harassment.

Members of the university community should be encouraged to bring a variety of voices onto campus to engage in rigorous debate in a variety of arenas. We are responsible, as educators, to provide an environment where civil discourse can take place, to protect human dignity, and to promote the core values and purpose of a university. Simultaneously, we desire a university to not be silent when hate speech occurs on campus. When such hate speech is constitutionally protected, the principal power of universities is not to limit hate speech, but the university is empowered to call the hate speech out for what it is—divisive, dehumanizing, and deleterious— and to do so emphatically, forcefully, and immediately.

Karen,
That is a great question that I do not know the answer to.
Perhaps Michelle or Melinda could provide some guidance on that process.
I do see where the confusion lies in those additional questions. Even if the curriculum requires Pathway courses I am not sure why the directive is there for our committee to be part of the legislative process.

Thanks to anyone who might be able to clear this up!

Thank you, Dr. Hudiburg. The form is misleading because to answer "yes" to the question about whether or not the new legislation requires Pitt Pathway courses, then the instructions say that it needs Pitt Pathway approval. Is there a way that the form can be revised so that it is less confusing?

Good morning Dr. Hudiburg,

Could you add this to the Pitt Pathway Committee's agenda for the next meeting? This is a new emphasis from the Communication Department. The Council for Teacher Education approved it at the October 7 meeting and now it needs Pitt Pathway approval. Once it gains PP approval, could you please upload it into this FS SharePoint folder? https://pittsburgstate.sharepoint.com/sites/facsen/SitePages/Home.aspx?RootFolder=%2Fsites%2Ffacsen%2FShared%20Documents%2FApproved%20Curriculum%20from%20Colleges%20to%20Registrar%20Admin&FolderCTID=0x0120005D7A1239D0D1364E8E3241A28D396FCD&View=%7BA7965729%2DE984%2D45AF%2D9A7A%2D7E08398243D2%7D Thank you.

Department: History, Philosophy, and Social Sciences College: Arts and Sciences

Submission Date: September 2020 Revision Effective: Fall, 2021 (Year)

Contact Person: Christopher Childers, Kirstin Lawson ☒ Faculty member ☐ Chair

Name of Existing Major or Minor/Emphasis/Certificate: Bachelor of Arts in History

Rationale for Deletion: Pittsburg State University is reorganizing and streamlining many degree programs in response to demand and budgetary constraints. Students in the existing BA and BSEd programs will now enroll in a single BS in History program. They will have the option of an education emphasis that will prepare them for Kansas teacher certification. This single degree program will easily meet Regents' minima requirements and will consolidate all our undergraduate programs under a single degree program. The BA degree has had modest enrollment, reflecting national trends, but students remain interested. Consolidating these degrees into a single BS degree with the option of an education emphasis will make the single degree's numbers stronger.

Because it is a professional degree program, the BSEd degree has a certain degree of attrition from students who cannot maintain the GPA mandated by the PSU College of Education or meet KSDE requirements for licensure. Students who decide to drop the major often enroll in the Bachelor of General Studies degree program instead of completing a degree in the history program. In doing so, they avoid having to take modern language courses and having to select a minor, both of which are required by the History BA degree and would significantly add time and cost for completion of a degree. With the new BS degree, students who wish to discontinue teacher education will have the option to seamlessly transfer to the no emphasis side of the degree plan. We expect that this will increase retention within the program and increase our numbers within the new single undergraduate history degree.

Karen,
That is a great question that I do not know the answer to.
Perhaps Michelle or Melinda could provide some guidance on that process.
I do see where the confusion lies in those additional questions. Even if the curriculum requires Pathway courses I am not sure why the directive is there for our committee to be part of the legislative process.

Thanks to anyone who might be able to clear this up!

Thank you, Dr. Hudiburg. The form is misleading because to answer "yes" to the question about whether or not the new legislation requires Pitt Pathway courses, then the instructions say that it needs Pitt Pathway approval. Is there a way that the form can be revised so that it is less confusing?

Good morning Dr. Hudiburg,

Could you add this to the Pitt Pathway Committee's agenda for the next meeting? This is a new emphasis from the Communication Department. The Council for Teacher Education approved it at the October 7 meeting and now it needs Pitt Pathway approval. Once it gains PP approval, could you please upload it into this FS SharePoint folder? https://pittsburgstate.sharepoint.com/sites/facsen/SitePages/Home.aspx?RootFolder=%2Fsites%2Ffacsen%2FShared%20Documents%2FApproved%20Curriculum%20from%20Colleges%20to%20Registrar%20Admin&FolderCTID=0x0120005D7A1239D0D1364E8E3241A28D396FCD&View=%7BA7965729%2DE984%2D45AF%2D9A7A%2D7E08398243D2%7D Thank you.

B. Program Identification

Degree Level:	Bachelor's Degree
Program Title:	History, Philosophy, and Social Sciences
Degree to be Offered:	Bachelor of Science in History
Responsible Department or Unit:	History, Philosophy, and Social Sciences
CIP Code:	[CIP Code Number]
Modality:	Face to Face
Proposed Implementation Date:	Fall2021

Total Number of Semester Credit Hours for the Degree: 120

II. Clinical Sites: Does this program require the use of Clinical Sites? Yes

If "yes," please provide an explanation below regarding location, use, and, expected demand. Also address results of discussions with other universities on cooperating for clinical site placement. Please also state if your institution is party to the Inter-institutional Non-Binding Memorandum of Understanding for Clinical Affiliation Site Cooperation.

Students completing the BS in History with an education emphasis will complete clinical experiences and a student teaching semester in conjunction with the PSU College of Education. These experiences are already administered through the existing BSEd program that is being deleted in this curriculum revision process. No new resources will be required.

III. Justification

Pittsburg State University is reorganizing and streamlining many degree programs in response to demand and budgetary constraints. Students in the existing BA and BSEd programs will now enroll in this single BS in History program. They will have the option of an education emphasis that will prepare them for Kansas teacher certification. This single degree program will easily meet Regents' minima requirements and will consolidate all our undergraduate programs under a single degree program.

IV. Program Demand: Select one or both of the following to address student demand:

A. Survey of Student Interest

Number of surveys administered: ..... _____
Number of completed surveys returned: ..... _____
Percentage of students interested in program: ... _____

Include a brief statement that provides additional information to explain the survey.

B. Market Analysis

This new program consolidates the existing BA and BSEd degrees in the PSU history program under a single degree. Demand for the BSEd has been strong in recent years. The BA degree has more modest enrollment, but students remain interested. Consolidating these degrees into a single BS degree with the option of an education emphasis will make the single degree's numbers stronger.

Because it is a professional degree program, the BSEd degree has a certain degree of attrition from students who cannot maintain the GPA mandated by the PSU College of Education or meet KSDE requirements for licensure. Students who decide to drop the major often enroll in the Bachelor of General Studies degree program instead of completing a degree in the history program. In doing so, they avoid having to take modern language courses and having to select a minor, both of which are required by the History BA degree and would significantly add time and cost for completion of a degree. With the new BS degree, students who wish to discontinue teacher education will have the option to seamlessly transfer to the no emphasis side of the degree plan. We expect that this will increase retention within the program and increase our numbers within the new single undergraduate history degree.

V. Projected Enrollment for the Initial Three Years of the Program

Year	Headcount Per Year		Sem Credit Hrs Per Year
	Full- Time	Part- Time	Full- Time	Part- Time
Implementation	73
Year 2	75
Year 3	75

VI. Employment

History graduates secure employment as records specialists, systems analysts, corporate managers, development supervisors, reference librarians, technical writers, editors, loan officers, contract managers, FBI agents, police officers, CIA area specialists, career military officers, insurance claims examiners, political campaign managers, and speech writers, to name a few options.

Those who have chosen to stay in the history profession serve as archivists, reference specialists, curators, and historians with museums, state historical societies, the National Park System, and the National Archives.

Many of our majors teach in a K-12 setting.

VII. Admission and Curriculum

A. Admission Criteria
There are no specific admissions requirements for the BS in history degree.

Karen,
That is a great question that I do not know the answer to.
Perhaps Michelle or Melinda could provide some guidance on that process.
I do see where the confusion lies in those additional questions. Even if the curriculum requires Pathway courses I am not sure why the directive is there for our committee to be part of the legislative process.

Thanks to anyone who might be able to clear this up!

Thank you, Dr. Hudiburg. The form is misleading because to answer "yes" to the question about whether or not the new legislation requires Pitt Pathway courses, then the instructions say that it needs Pitt Pathway approval. Is there a way that the form can be revised so that it is less confusing?

Michelle is correct. We only approve courses to add to the Pathway.

I don't think this goes to Pathway, they only approve courses not curriculum.

Subject: Pitt Pathway Legislation -- requires approval

Good morning Dr. Hudiburg,

Could you add this to the Pitt Pathway Committee's agenda for the next meeting? This is a new emphasis from the Communication Department. The Council for Teacher Education approved it at the October 7 meeting and now it needs Pitt Pathway approval. Once it gains PP approval, could you please upload it into this FS SharePoint folder? https://pittsburgstate.sharepoint.com/sites/facsen/SitePages/Home.aspx?RootFolder=%2Fsites%2Ffacsen%2FShared%20Documents%2FApproved%20Curriculum%20from%20Colleges%20to%20Registrar%20Admin&FolderCTID=0x0120005D7A1239D0D1364E8E3241A28D396FCD&View=%7BA7965729%2DE984%2D45AF%2D9A7A%2D7E08398243D2%7D Thank you.

Contact Person: Kirstin Lawson, Chris Childers ☒ Faculty member ☐ Chair

Name of Existing Major or Minor/Emphasis/Certificate: Bachelor of Science in Education with a Major in History/Government

If proposing a name change to major or minor/emphasis/certificate, indicate Proposed Name Change:
Bachelor of Science Degree with a Major in History with an emphasis in Education

Description of Change: The current History/Government BSED will become an emphasis area: education emphasis within a Bachelor of Science degree; additional "no emphasis" area will allow History BA majors to be able to complete the BS degree; revision in upper division requirements to reflect changes in program offerings

Rationale for Change (include changes to curriculum objectives): This will streamline our offerings and allow us to combine two separate degrees into one degree program. Upper division offerings in the program need to be reflected in the major requirements.

Is this revision related to, and/or may affect, any degree program or minor/emphasis/certificate at any other Regent university?
☐ Yes ☒ No

Whether a "yes" or "no" response, please provide an explanation.
This program is one that currently exists at other Regents' Universities

Is this revision related to, and/or may affect, any other department's/college's/unit's curricula or programs at Pittsburg State University?
☒ Yes ☐ No

Whether a "yes" or "no" response, please provide an explanation. Provide documentation of any discussions (e.g. copies of e-mails, memos, etc.) that have occurred.
The addition of emphases within the existing BS degree will directly affect the History BA in the HPSS department. This is a planned combination of the two separate degree programs. No changes will be made in required Pathway courses for the major.

☐ Yes ☒ No

Whether a "yes" or "no" response, please provide an explanation. Provide documentation of any discussions (e.g. copies of e-mails, memos, etc.) that have occurred.
The deletion of this concentration will only affect this specific concentration. This program was first developed to interface with the development of the Technology Center's programs. Human Factors involves the interaction between humans and machines. This encompasses a wide range of activities including the design of instrument panels, placement of sidewalks, form and functionality issues, and web design, etc. Although this concentration seemed to be attractive to students, the concentration never fulfilled the promise of attracting students.

The Department has been monitoring the number of students in this concentration and recognized two years ago that the number of students continued to decline. At this point, it seemed prudent to discontinue the concentration.

The Undergraduate Curriculum Committee evaluated the concentration and recommended it to be discontinued. The full faculty met on September 17, 2020, discussed the recommendation, and then voted to eliminate the concentration.

Whether a "yes" or "no" response, please provide an explanation. Provide documentation of any discussions (e.g. copies of e-mails, memos, etc.) that have occurred.
The deletion of this concentration will only affect this specific concentration. The program was first developed due to a need for practicing substance-abuse counselors to have academic credentials and training. The need for this program was intense in the late 1990s. As the practicing substance-abuse counselors completed their educations, the need for the program began to diminish. The Behavioral Sciences Regulatory Board still requires that those who are seeking licensure have the academic credentials, but there are fewer students interested in this area.

The Department has been monitoring the number of students in this concentration and recognized two years ago that the number of students continued to decline. At this point, it seemed prudent to discontinue the concentration.

Brenda,
I don't see any issues with deleting the BSE ECU birth-grade 3 option as long as the courses for the Early Childhood Special Education minor and the new ECU birth-kindergarten option will still be available.

Request for New Course

(Undergraduate Course Numbers through Course Number 699)

Department: School of Construction College: College of Technology
Submission Date: 08/20/2020

Contact Person: Denise Bertoncino ☒ Faculty member ☐ Chair

Is this new course proposal related to, and/or affect, any other department's/college's/unit's curricula or programs at Pittsburg State University?
☐ Yes ☒ No

Whether a "yes" or "no" response, please provide an explanation. Provide documentation of any discussions (e.g. copies of e-mails, memos, etc.) that have occurred.
Student's in interior design currently take three different construction courses. The addition of this course will combine the three into one, because the design student's only need basic knowledge of the topics not the in depth instruction of three separate courses. This course will be available to other programs across the COT that need MEP fundamantals but do not need 3 courses. This course will not be available for CM or Construction ET majors.

Proposed Course:

Course Number: CMCET 318

Title of Course: Fundamental MEP Systems

Credit Hours: 3

Date first offered: Spring 2021 (Semester/Year) ☐ Fall ☒ Spring ☐ Summer (check all that apply)

Prerequisite: CMCET 133 Construction Graphics and a "C" or better in MATH 113 College Algebra or equivalent Course Description (as it will appear in the next catalog): CMCET 318 Fundamental MEP Systems. 3 hours. (3 hours lecture). This course addresses the design, installation and operation of materials and equipment in electrical power, lighting systems, HVAC systems, plumbing systems and fire protection. Includes design projects, blueprint reading, and quantification of labor and material units for productivity and cost estimation as it relates to interior design. This course is targeted for non-construction majors. Prerequisites: CMCET 133 Construction Graphics and a "C" or better in MATH 113 College Algebra or equivalent.

Purpose/Justification for Proposed Course: Interior design students need a basic knowledge and understanding of mechanical, electrical, and plumbing systems to use when practicing in the professional field and taking the NCIDQ qualifying exam as a professional. The implementation of the new course will also meet CIDA accreditation standards for the interior design programs future accreditation. The interior design students currently take three separate courses that culminate in eight credit hours of mechanical, electrical, and plumbing. There are interior design courses that need to be added to the curriculum to be competitive with other universities with an interior design degree. Combining all three construction courses into one 3 credit hour course fits the needs of the interior design student and opens up five credit hours for new courses in interior design. This course will also be available for other majors that cannot easily take the three current MEP courses for construction majors

Objectives/Student Learning Outcomes (as it will appear in the syllabus)
(Referenced to School of Construction Educational Outcomes)

1. Objective #1: To develop a fundamental understanding of materials, concepts and equipment used for HVAC, plumbing and electrical systems.
2. Objective #2: To develop a fundamental understanding of the design and space requirements HVAC, plumbing and electrical systems to effectively communicate with designers, engineers, suppliers and contractors.

Submission Date: Fall 2020 Revision Effective: Fall, 2021 (Year)

Contact Person: James Otter ☐ Faculty member ☒ Chair

Name of Existing Major or Minor/Emphasis/Certificate: Bachelor of Applied Science Degree with a Major in Technology – Construction emphasis

If proposing a name change to major or minor/emphasis/certificate, indicate Proposed Name Change:
No change

Description of Change: Change ETECH 502 Engineering Economy to CMCET 530 Construction Cost Management for the Construction emphasis retain ETECH 502 for Safety emphasis. And change TM 520 Leadership in the Workplace to TM 520, or LDSP 600, or MIL 300 for leadership course option. Remove CMCET 530 from the 12 hours of technical electives. Remove MGT 540 Human Resources Management.

Rationale for Change (include changes to curriculum objectives): To better reflect what students are actually doing. CMCET 530 is globally substituted for ETECH 502 for all BAS construction emphasis majors. This will eliminate a lot of substitution documentation. The leadership options are the same as the Construction Management degree – allowing students 3 choices to address the leadership requirement. Again, these are regular substitutions that will eliminate a lot of substitution documentation. The removal of CMCET 530 from the technical electives reflects the course being a requirement. Removing MGT 540 provides a better pathway to BAS students seeking a business minor.

Is this revision related to, and/or may affect, any degree program or minor/emphasis/certificate at any other Regent university?
☐ Yes ☒ No

Whether a "yes" or "no" response, please provide an explanation.
No clear explanation since we are not familiar with all programs in other Regents universities. We cannot foresee any effect.

Is this revision related to, and/or may affect, any other department's/college's/unit's curricula or programs at Pittsburg State University?
☐ Yes ☒ No

Whether a "yes" or "no" response, please provide an explanation. Provide documentation of any discussions (e.g. copies of e-mails, memos, etc.) that have occurred.
The change from ETECH 502 to CMCET 530 has been allowed for the last 2 years so no impact on the ETECH department should exist. The addition of the leadership courses should not impact any department since these substitutions are already taking place for the last 2 years. The removal of MGT 540 should not negatively impact the School of Business.

Name of Existing Major or Minor/Emphasis/Certificate: Construction Management – Company Management emphasis

If proposing a name change to major or minor/emphasis/certificate, indicate Proposed Name Change:

Description of Change: Changing course selection to support a business minor. The current business minor requires 21 hours including 2 accounting courses (Financial Accounting & Managerial Accounting), ECON 200, FIN 326, MGT 330, MGT 430 and MKTG 330. The proposed changes would drop MGT 101 Introduction to Business and MGT 540 Human Resource Management and add ACCTG 201 Financial Accounting and MKGT 330 Principles of Marketing. Students with this emphasis could then take ECON 200 as part of the E2 Diverse Perspective pathway, a second accounting course, and FIN 326 Business Finance resulting in a value added Minor in Business Administration. Note: The College of Business is forwarding a proposal to change the Business minor. Our proposal will reflect these changes.

Rationale for Change (include changes to curriculum objectives): Proposed changes support an additive educational objective for CM majors seeking a business minor. Supports the CM educational objectives focused on enhancing management and construction company operations understanding within the CM program.

Is this revision related to, and/or may affect, any degree program or minor/emphasis/certificate at any other Regent university?
☐ Yes ☒ No

Whether a "yes" or "no" response, please provide an explanation.
This revision does not appear to impact any other program at a Kansas Regents university

Is this revision related to, and/or may affect, any other department's/college's/unit's curricula or programs at Pittsburg State University?
☒ Yes ☐ No

Whether a "yes" or "no" response, please provide an explanation. Provide documentation of any discussions (e.g. copies of e-mails, memos, etc.) that have occurred.
This revision has the potential to increase the number of business minors offered through the College of Business. The CM program has supported this minor for years. We do not expect any increase in overall numbers, the changes will make the minor easier to complete. The COB is aware of the proposed changes.

Name of Existing Major or Minor/Emphasis/Certificate: Bachelor of Science in Workforce Development (BSWD)

If proposing a name change to major or minor/emphasis/certificate, indicate Proposed Name Change:
No Change

Description of Change: NA

Rationale for Change (include changes to curriculum objectives):
The BSWD was designed to be an online degree completion program. In order to offer a seamless pathway for students to complete their bachelors degree, these changes will allow students with an associates degree from an accredited institution to complete a bachelors degree completely online after completion of the 60 required hours for the BSWD program. These changes align with KBOR's Get Ahead Initiative which identified over 300,000 adults in Kansas with some college credit, but no degree (see attached supporting documentation). By building a direct pipeline with high schools and community colleges, this unique degree completion program will allow individuals to complete their degree through a true 2 plus 2 program. Changes to the curriculum have been made to align with industry needs as well as allow more flexibility for students to enroll as part-time or full-time students depending on their needs.

Is this revision related to, and/or may affect, any degree program or minor/emphasis/certificate at any other Regent university?
☐ Yes ☒ No

Whether a "yes" or "no" response, please provide an explanation.
No – These changes only affect the BSWD at Pittsburg State University

Kansas Board of Regents announces Get AHEAD initiative

(Topeka, Kan.) - The Kansas Board of Regents has launched the Get AHEAD (Adult Higher Education Accessible Degrees) initiative to encourage and assist the 300,000 Kansas adults who have some college credit, but did not graduate, earn a degree.

The Get AHEAD initiative features seven of the 90 online bachelor's degree programs currently offered by Kansas public universities, a reverse transfer option for students who attended a community or technical college and who are eligible to receive an associate degree, credit for prior learning and military training, and information about sources of financial aid. Kansans who have earned some college credit, but did not obtain a degree, should visit getaheadkansas.org to learn more about the options available to them.

Representatives from universities, community colleges, technical colleges, workforce centers, chambers of commerce, media outlets, public libraries, and other organizations have collaborated on the development and implementation of a communication plan to help Kansas adults discover that it is never too late to earn a degree. Support for the Get AHEAD initiative has been provided by a $50,000 technical assistance grant from the Lumina Foundation Strategy Labs.
For more information, please contact Matt Keith at (785) 430-4237 or mkeith@ksbor.org.
