

FACULTY SENATE MINUTES

March 24, 2025

The Pittsburg State University Faculty Senate met at 3:00 p.m. on Monday, March 24, 2025, with Norm Philipp, President, presiding.

Guests

Doug Ball was welcomed by the Faculty Senate to discuss budget updates. The budget process has been different this year. Instead of starting with the Governor's budget, the House and Senate created their own budget. This has disrupted the typical flow and timelines. Several items are being discussed in committee. They include the following: investment for the regional institutions, pay plan funding, need based aid for students, a 1 ½ decrease across all agencies, student success funding and funding to support the Campus Restoration Act. The budget should become clearer in the next 2-3 weeks. The PSU tuition committee will be meeting soon.

Jamie Brooksher visited the Faculty Senate to discuss the Freedom of Expression policy and potential updates. Time, place and manner are being reviewed in part due to the increased possibilities of protests. An email will be sent soon requesting feedback. There will be an open forum this Thursday at 3pm in the Governors Room. Potential updates include the addition of specific scenarios that are consistent with the First Amendment.

 - Right-Size and Streamline Education: Recommend methods to optimize the higher education system's size and efficiency, ensuring it meets current and future student needs effectively.
 - Potential Impact on Higher Education in Kansas:
 - Structural Reorganization: The commission's findings could lead to significant restructuring within the state's higher education system, potentially resulting in mergers or affiliations among institutions to enhance efficiency.

- Policy Revisions: Recommendations may prompt changes in policies related to governance, funding allocations, and institutional missions to better align with statewide educational goals.
 - Resource Optimization: Identifying and eliminating redundancies could free up resources, allowing for reinvestment in critical areas such as academic programs, student support services, and infrastructure improvements.
 - Student-Centric Improvements: By focusing on accessibility, affordability, and streamlined pathways to degree completion, the commission's work aims to create a more student-centered higher education environment in Kansas.
- The commission is expected to submit a preliminary report to the legislature by January 1, 2026, followed by a final report by January 1, 2027. These reports will provide detailed findings and recommendations that could shape the future landscape of higher education in Kansas.

Definition of an Emphasis

Area of Emphasis is a specific subject area that exists within an approved degree program and major. At Pittsburg State University a minimum of 12 credit hours and no more than 24 credit hours are expected for an area of emphasis in a baccalaureate degree program.

Definition of a Minor

Minors at Pittsburg State University may range from 15 to 24 credit hours. When selected to accompany a degree that requires a minor there must be at least nine unique credit hours in the minor that are not found in the student's major in order to meet graduation requirements. In instances where the major requires a minor (not the degree type), academic departments/schools may specify minors that best achieve the learning objective for their students.

Definition of Certificate Program

A certificate program can be undergraduate or graduate in course content and provides a specific body of knowledge for personal or career development or professional continuing education. Certificates may be taken while also pursuing a degree or independent from any other studies at Pittsburg State University. It is recommended that if the student is only pursuing a certificate and not in conjunction with a degree and wishes to apply for federal financial assistance that they visit with personnel in the Student Financial Assistance office regarding the eligibility for aid for the certificate of interest. At Pittsburg State University a certificate can range from 12 credit hours to 24 credit hours.

Our vision is for FCS 290 to be an introduction to the field of early childhood. With this revision, the course will provide students with a broad overview of the field and prepare them for other courses in their child development or ECU program.

2. Is this related to, and/or affect, any other department/college/unit curricula or programs at Pittsburg State University? If "Yes", please provide an explanation. Provide documentation of any discussions (e.g. copies of emails, memos, etc.) that have occurred.

Yes No

3. Is this course to be considered for General Education?

If "yes" this requirement will need approval of the General Education Committee after the revisions have been approved by Faculty Senate. The General Education Course Approval form will also need to be submitted.

ASSIGNMENTS & EVALUATION

The final grade is based on the following assignment categories:

- | | |
|--|--------------------|
| 1. Reflections & Discussion Boards | 40% of total grade |
| Specific assignments are currently being created. | |
| 2. Assignments & Projects | 40% of total grade |
| Specific assignments are currently being created. | |
| 3. Weekly Quizzes & Final Exam | 20% of total grade |

WEEKLY ACTIVITIES

During most weeks there will be a graded activity related to the week's topic. Weekly activities may not be made up if missed. A limited number of extra credit opportunities will be offered throughout the semester as a way for students to earn back points from missed weekly activities.

ASSIGNMENT GUIDELINES & DUE DATES

Each assignment will include guidelines and a rubric when assigned. You will find due dates for assignments/projects/quizzes in the tentative class schedule at the end of the syllabus, in the guidelines for each assignment in our Canvas course site. Actual assignments/projects and their point values may change during the course of the semester. Additional graded activities may be added at the discretion of the instructor. Students will be notified of any such changes in advance.

LATE WORK

The instructor will accept assignments listed under “assignments and projects” up to one week past the original due date. Work submitted late will not earn full credit. The grade on a late assignment will be dropped by a minimum of 20% of the total point value (for example a 100-point assignment would equal a 20-point deduction). Assignments more than one week late will not be accepted. Weekly activities, observation tasks, and tests will not be accepted late.

FEEDBACK ON ASSIGNMENTS

After an assignment is graded, the instructor will provide general comments about the assignment to the class as a whole. Students will also receive individual feedback from the instructor for their individual written assignments through the rubric and through comments from the instructor within the returned graded assignment. Students should expect to receive feedback on their assignments within two weeks of submission, the instructor will update the class if the grading process is delayed. It is hoped that students will use feedback from the instructor to improve their work on future assignment submissions.

INFORMATION ABOUT GRADES

If you have a question or concern about the grade you received on an assignment, please make an appointment with your instructor to review the assignment. Any questions about individual assignments should occur within a week of receiving feedback on the assignment. Students may access their course grades in Canvas at any time. Grades will be submitted to the registrar at midterm and the end of the semester. The grading scale used for this class is as follows: A=90-100%, B=80-89%, C=70-79%, D=60-69%, F=below 59%. Grades will not be rounded for this course.

ACADEMIC HONESTY

Each student is expected to do their original work. Any student who cheats or plagiarizes may receive a failing grade for the particular project or assignment, in the course, and possibly dismissal from the university. See the Pittsburg State University Catalog for further explanation of the university policy.

COURSE EXPECTATIONS

CLASS PREPARATION

I have found it a good practice to “schedule” time to work on your online class materials throughout the week—it helps some people to view it at “class time”. It is expected that students will do the assigned readings and weekly activities. Tests will cover information from the assigned reading, weekly activities, discussions, videos, etc. Within each week’s module, you will find an overview that outlines the tasks and activities for the week. Slides and videos related to the week’s topic will be posted to help focus your reading but are not a substitute for reading the assigned material.

ATTENDANCE

Regular attendance is essential for obtaining course information and input in class discussions. Attendance in an online course means that you log on and actively participate in the discussions and activities within the time frame allowed. The weekly discussion forums and activities help clarify your understanding of the concepts and make connections with your classmates.

NAVIGATING CANVAS

For this course, course information and materials will be posted in weekly modules. All materials related to the week's topic will be located in the week's module. Some material within each module may have requirements for viewing or completing before you will be allowed to progress through the module or move on to the next module. It is the student's responsibility to view the weekly modules in our course Canvas site frequently. Do not rely on the navigation pane ("To Do" and "Coming Up") on the right side of your Canvas homepage to guide your participation in the class, some class activities that may not show up in that navigation pane.

CANVAS ASSISTANCE

For this course, it is expected that you can successfully navigate the Canvas learning management system. Assistance can be found by clicking on the "Help" tab on the left-hand menu and choosing "Student Support" or "Search Canvas Guides". A student may also contact Gorilla Geeks for Canvas assistance at <http://www.pittstate.edu/office/gorilla-geeks/>.

GENERAL INFORMATION ABOUT ASSIGNMENT SUBMISSION

Be sure to thoroughly read the guidelines for each assignment as well as look over the rubric for each assignment before beginning the work and again before submitting it.

- Assignments will be submitted through the course Canvas site. Assignments should be submitted using the "Submit Assignment" button.
- Do not enter or attach an assignment in the comment box of an assignment as it will not show up as a submitted assignment to the instructor.
- Please do not email assignments without instruction to do so.
- Students are strongly advised to save a copy of all work prior to submitting it. In the unlikely event that an assignment is misplaced, the student will be able to furnish a copy to the instructor upon request.
- If the instructor is unable to open an uploaded assignment in Canvas, the student will be notified to upload the assignment in a format that can be opened. An assignment will be considered late if the instructor has to request a file that can be opened. Typically, there should be no problems with your instructor opening documents created in programs through Microsoft Office or saved as a PDF.
- It is advised to submit online assignments prior to the precise deadline in the event that a technology failure, such as an internet outage, occurs and prevents you from submitting an assignment on time. If there is a widespread issue with our Canvas network, I am notified as an instructor and will make accommodations as necessary. I cannot verify individual technological glitches.

TECHNOLOGY REQUIREMENTS

To be able to fully participate in this course you will need to have the ability to search/open web pages, view/listen to videos, submit assignments (with attachments) via Canvas, and open/submit documents in Word, PowerPoint, PDF, and similar formats.

MICROSOFT OFFICE

PSU and Microsoft offer all active students FREE Microsoft Office (client download for home) and Office 365 (cloud service that can be used anytime). If you are an active student, you can proceed to <https://www.pittstate.edu/it/pitt-start/ms-office.html> to get started.

CLASSROOM ENVIRONMENT

It is expected that the learning environment in the classroom accommodates the needs and viewpoints of students and the instructor. The expectation is that respect will be accorded to everyone in the course.

NETIQUETTE

Netiquette, or Internet etiquette, are guidelines for maintaining civilized, professional, and effective communication in an online environment and email exchanges. Instructors and students will demonstrate appropriate netiquette when interacting with each other. Written communication will be conducted using standard business English. Here are some basic rules:

- Keep your questions and comments relevant to the discussion topic. If another student posts a comment or question that is off-topic, do NOT reply. The instructor will reply in private to the student.
- Treat the other participants in the forum politely and respectfully. Model the same standards of behavior online you would follow in a face-to-face discussion.
- Do not use ALL CAPS when posting as this is considered, "shouting." Do not "flame" others in the forums. Flaming is the "act of responding in a highly critical, sarcastic, or ridiculing manner."
- Be careful when using acronyms. If you use an acronym it is best to spell out its meaning first, then put the acronym in parentheses afterward, for example Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs). After that, you can use the acronym freely throughout your message.
- The instructor reserves the right to remove posts that are not collegial and/or do not meet netiquette guidelines.

I. Course Description:

An in-depth view of personal and family financial planning emphasizing the financial planning process as well as financial educational strategies. Concepts include communicating about money, educational strategies when working with families, savings and cash flow management, insurance, investments, taxes, estate planning, and use of credit. This course prepares students to take the competency exam for the Certified Personal & Family Finance Educator credentialing through the American Association of Family and Consumer Sciences. Prerequisite: FCS 230 Consumer Education and Personal Finance or FIN 210 Financial Planning.

II. Course Purpose:

The National Financial Capability Study (NFCS) conducted by the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA) in 2009, 2012, 2015, and again in 2018 found that Americans demonstrate relatively low levels of financial literacy and have difficulty applying financial decision-making skills to real life situations. In the 2018 study, participants were asked six questions covering aspects of economics and finance encountered in everyday life. No complex calculations were required. "Only 7% of respondents are able to answer all six questions correctly, and only 40% are able to answer at least four questions correctly, down slightly from 44% in 2015. Looking at only the five questions that have been asked in the NFCS since 2009, we see a clear trend of declining financial literacy over the past nine years." Individuals need at least a fundamental level of financial understanding. This knowledge, paired with financial decision-making skills, can best ensure an individual's financial capability. This course enables CFS emphasis students to bring financial education to the families and communities they serve.

VI. Assessment :

Students will have two weekly assignments and a final exam.

A. Overall Evaluation is based on:

- the students ability to answer questions on objective tests;
- the completion and quality of assigned work using the PSU Writing Rubric; and

- participation and cooperation in on-line activities.

Grading Scale:

Grading System - grade is based on the total points awarded out of total points possible.

A = 90 - 100%; B = 80 - 89%; C = 70 - 79%; D = 60 - 69%; F = 59% and below.

Class Attendance and Instructor's Policies:

1. Participation is expected. You are responsible for all material covered in this course in its given timeframe. In the event of excessive absences (8 or more) or non-participation, the instructor will drop the student from the class. A note on attendance I may or may not take attendance every day. There is no "excused" or "unexcused" absences. You are either here on a day I take attendance or you are not. You do not need to tell me why you weren't in class. Think of them as personal days and save them! Additionally, if you miss more than the 8 absences, I reserve the right to refuse (or not grade = give you a zero) your electronic assignment submissions.
2. All assignments must be turned in at the specified time. Late work will be accepted for one week past the due date, but will then be given a 10% penalty. Past one week, NO late work will be accepted. Technical issues with computers or CANVAS are not valid excuses for late work. Have a "plan B" in mind in case you have computer issues. Extra credit will be offered occasionally, take advantage of it as a padding or buffer for your grade.
3. ASSIGNMENT SUBMISSIONS:
 - Be sure to thoroughly read the guidelines for each assignment as well as look over the rubric for each assignment before beginning the work and again before submitting it.
 - Assignments will be submitted electronically through the course Canvas site. Assignments should be submitted using the "Submit Assignment" button.
 - Do not enter or attach an assignment in the comment box of an assignment as it will not show up as a submitted assignment to the instructor.
 - Please do not email assignments without instruction to do so.
 - Students are strongly advised to save a copy of all work prior to submitting it. In the unlikely event that an assignment is misplaced, the student will be able to furnish a copy to the instructor upon request.
 - If the instructor is unable to open an uploaded assignment in Canvas, the student will be notified to upload the assignment in a format that can be opened. An assignment will be considered late if the instructor has to request a file that can be opened. Typically, there should be no problems with your instructor opening documents created in programs through Microsoft Office or saved as a PDF.

- No Google docs allowed. I literally can not open the assignment in Canvas. Google docs = ZERO points.
 - All written work must be in full sentences, typed, and submitted electronically (uploaded to Canvas). All work must be turned in typed, in APA format, 12 point font size, Times New Roman with 1 inch margins. Assignments should begin with an introduction, have a body, and a conclusion. Any works cited should be included in an APA style Bibliography. I reserve the right to reject any assignment that does not meet the minimum requirements outlined in that assignment or is not formatted properly.
 - It is advised to submit online assignments prior to the precise deadline in the event that a technology failure, such as an internet outage, occurs and prevents you from submitting an assignment on time. If there is a widespread issue with our Canvas network, I am notified as an Instructor and will make accommodations as necessary. I cannot verify individual technological glitches.
4. If you are involved in extracurricular activities (including, but not limited to: sports, ROTC, Choir, etc) that take you away from class; any assignments, discussions, quizzes, tests, etc. MUST be turned in PRIOR to your absence and/or PRIOR to the DEADLINE (whichever is first). Any questions about such assignments, discussions, quizzes, tests etc., must be brought to me PRIOR to the absence and/or PRIOR to the deadline. Being gone is not an excuse for skipping an assignment, discussion, or quiz.
 5. Online Quizzes and exams taken in Canvas must be taken on a laptop or desktop device. Wireless devices like your phone or a tablet are not always compatible with Canvas. Do NOT take an exam or quiz with your mobile device.
 6. Grading mistakes: I am human and I make mistakes. My TA also may make a mistake. If you believe a mistake has been made in grading, you have 48 hours within a normal work week (after it has been posted to Canvas) to email me an inquiry about your grade. No grade changes will be made after that grace period. (Basically what I am saying is that if I post a grade on Friday at 4:00 then you have until Tuesday at 4:00 to email me.)
 7. Regarding final grades: I strive throughout the semester to ensure that you receive the final grade that you earned. Grades reflect your level of proficiency and preparation for future work. They are not subjective, capricious, or random. If you disagree or have questions about an assignment or exam grade, the time to ask about it is when you receive the grade, not at the end of the semester when it is too late to learn from it. As such, do not email me at the end of the semester asking me for special consideration, additional extra credit, to review earlier assignments, etc. I would rather that we have these conversations throughout the semester, as that allows us to address concerns in a timely – and more effective – manner.

Academic Honesty You are expected to do and submit your work and not that of others.

Please refer to the catalog for the university policy on academic dishonesty. As per the Pittsburg State University Catalog, "Academic dishonesty...is defined as unethical activity associated with course work or grades." Additionally, "unless otherwise stated by the instructor, exams, quizzes, and out-of-class assignments are meant to be individual, rather than group, work." A violation of the academic dishonesty policy may result in a grade of F on the assignment, in the course, and possibly dismissal from the university.

Modification to Course Delivery and Class Cancellation Policy: The instructor of this course may modify the delivery of the course or cancel class in the event of the absence of the instructor or due to weather and/or health-related university closings. Modified course delivery may consist of online instruction and activities through Canvas. Students will be notified through a Canvas Announcement as soon as possible in the event of a modification to the delivery of the course or in the event of a class cancellation.

Curriculum Revision Form

Effective Date: FALL

Submission Date: 1-14-2025

Department: Family and Consumer Sciences

College of: Education

Contact Person: Sheila Cook

Minor Required? No

Revision

Major/Minor/Emphasis/Certification Name:

Family and Consumer Sciences Education - Bachelor of Science

If selection is "Deletion" complete questions 2, 3, & 4, then complete signatures.

Revision to Curriculum – REQUIRES ACADEMIC PLANNING EXCEL ATTACHED.

Used to change program name and/or curriculum, effective the upcoming academic catalog.

Removes Major/Minor/Emphasis/Certificate from upcoming catalog.

1. Describe your Changes:

Request to return FCS 409-93 - Demonstration Techniques and Instructional Technology to the Family and Consumer Sciences teacher education program and remove IND 120 - Interior Design Studio Fundamentals from the FCS teacher education program.

UGCC Note: Other changes include: Add FCS409 and remove Note 3 requiring 3 electives

2. Rationale for change, including changes to curriculum objectives:

Initially, IND 120 had 3-credit hours of prerequisites. However, starting this fall 2024, IND 120 now has 6-credit hours of prerequisites instead of the initial 3-credit hours prerequisite: "Prerequisite: IND 110 Interior Design Fundamentals and CMET 133 Construction Graphics." The additional 3-credit hours will place the FCS TE program over the recommended 120 overall credit hours. FCS 409-93 - Demonstration Techniques and Instructional Technology had been in the FCS TE program for many years and does not have any prerequisites. In addition, FCS 409-93 is still being taught and will remain on the FCS rotation schedule as an FCS emphasis course.

3. Will this change affect any education majors? If "yes," this requirement will need approval of the Council for Teacher Education before upload to "College Curriculum Legislation" in SharePoint.

Yes

No

4. If this change affects any other department on campus, please attach any email notifications between departments.

5. Does the revision meet University catalog definitions for majors, minors, emphases, and certificates as appropriate?

Yes No

6. Will additional resources or costs will be required?

Yes No

If so, what will be needed?

Definition of an Emphasis

Area of Emphasis is a specific subject area that exists within an approved degree program and major. At Pittsburg State University a minimum of 12 credit hours and no more than 24 credit hours are expected for an area of emphasis in a baccalaureate degree program.

Definition of a Minor

Minors at Pittsburg State University may range from 15 to 24 credit hours. When selected to accompany a degree that requires a minor there must be at least nine unique credit hours in the minor that are not found in the student's major in order to meet graduation requirements. In instances where the major requires a minor (not the degree type), academic departments/schools may specify minors that best achieve the learning objective for their students.

Definition of Certificate Program

A certificate program can be undergraduate or graduate in course content and provides a specific body of knowledge for personal or career development or professional continuing education. Certificates may be taken while also pursuing a degree or independent from any other studies at Pittsburg State University. It is recommended that if the student is only pursuing a certificate and not in conjunction with a degree and wishes to apply for federal financial assistance that they visit with personnel in the Student Financial Assistance office regarding the eligibility for aid for the certificate of interest. At Pittsburg State University a certificate can range from 12 credit hours to 24 credit hours.

- You are responsible for all missed material covered in class.
- Students missing more than 3 classes will be dropped from the course.

Course Notes:

1. Attendance is expected. We cover a vast amount of material on a WEEKLY basis and you are responsible for all material covered in class. In the event of excessive absenteeism (meaning 3 or more absences), the instructor has the right to drop the student from the class. When absent, you miss vital information; which contributes to your success in the course. An absence is an absence, so use them wisely.
2. Come to class on time, in fact, be a bit early. During final exams, the classroom door will be locked at the start of class.
3. I suggest logging onto Canvas EVERY DAY and following the weekly module schedule closely.
4. If you have internet issues, get those issues worked out now. This course waits for no one.
5. You are responsible for submitting your own work.
6. All assignments must be turned in on or before, the specified date because No Late Work Will Be Accepted.

Discussion Board:

- When Discussion board is used, all topics will be posted to Canvas. Discussion board topics will generally cover the respective chapters covered for that week.
- In addition to posting one 300 + word response to the discussion board questions, students will also post a 100 + word comment on the post of at least one other classmate.
- To receive all points for each discussion board topic, all required posts must be submitted by the deadline, contain no grammatical, spelling or punctuation errors, mention at least two specific points, make strong connections to content and real-life situations, and include your “information detail” (see below for specifics).
- Responses submitted to fellow classmate’s post should be thoughtful and present new ideas, not “I agree!” or “I like what you said about nutrients!”
- NO LATE POSTS WILL BE ACCEPTED.
- When posting on Discussion Board, use the following “information detail” format example at the beginning of each of your posts and references at the end of each of your posts:

Discussion Board # 1 – Classroom Decorating
January 26, 2024

- How to Decorate Your Classroom to Stimulate Learning.

Heavily decorated classrooms can bombard students with too much visual information, interfering with their memory and ability to focus, a new study finds.

This is just the latest study to examine the relationship between classroom environment and students’ executive functions, which include skills like memory, attention, and self-regulation. While teachers have good intentions when decorating, many classrooms end up being “sensory-rich” in a way that “could hamper children’s learning gains rather than help,” according to psychologists Pedro Rodrigues and Josefa Pandeirada, who coauthored the study.

To understand how decor affects learning, Rodrigues and Pandeirada recruited 64 children between 8 and 12 years old to perform attention and memory tasks in two groups. For the high-decoration group, the walls of the room were covered with numerous pictures of ordinary objects and scenes, such as cars, musical instruments, and trees. Walls in the control group’s room, on the other hand, were bare.

The children performed a series of tasks designed to test their attention and memory. In one attention test, for example, they observed a laptop screen, pressing a button if an X appeared and doing nothing if a K appeared. In a memory test reminiscent of the electronic game Simon Says, the children observed nine blue squares that changed to yellow in varying sequences, which the children attempted to repeat. A total of four tests were given—two for memory and two for attention.

Compared to children in the bare-wall room, children in the high-decoration room performed worse on all tests, which suggests that too much visual stimulus can be a distraction.

“Overall, the results from these studies indicate that children could have difficulty in ignoring visual distractors when these are embedded in the surrounding environment,” the study authors explain.

Classrooms Should Be Engaging, Not Distracting

That’s not to say that every wall must be bare. In 2015, a team of researchers in the U.K. analyzed 153 classrooms and found that students benefited most when the walls had some decorations. “The displays on the walls should be designed to provide a lively sense to the classroom, but without becoming chaotic in feel. As a rule of thumb, 20 to 50 percent of the available wall space should be kept clear,” the researchers wrote.

Jean,

Sorry for the delay on this. Do any of the other prerequisites need to be changed if you're moving it up? Currently it reads as this:
Prerequisite: For Teacher Education majors only: A grade of ?C? or better in PSYCH 155 General Psychology, PSYCH 263 Developmental Psychology and EDUC 261 Explorations in Education, minimum 2.5000 cumulative GPA. Elementary only: Have taken a Basic Skills Test, or score of 22 or higher on the ACT or 1040 or higher on the SAT. Our graduate application forms are the same across programs.

I hope you are faring well in China!

Subject: Questions

Robin,
I have a couple of items for you.

1. There is a prerequisite on PSYCH 357 Educational Psychology that needs to be changed for Elementary and Elementary Unified. Currently it requires basic skills. That should be removed, as we have moved it earlier in their program. This will require legislation.
2. Graduate recommendation forms at admission to programs. Does all of Psychology use the same form or is the form for School Counseling and School Psychologists programs unique to those programs?

Curriculum Revision Form

Effective Date: FALL

Submission Date: November 4, 2024

Department: Psychology & Counseling

College of: Education

Contact Person: Robin Blair

Minor Required? No

Revision

Major/Minor/Emphasis/Certification Name:

B.S. Psychology (Human Resource Development)

If selection is "Deletion" complete questions 2, 3, & 4, then complete signatures.

Revision to Curriculum – REQUIRES ACADEMIC PLANNING EXCEL ATTACHED.

Used to change program name and/or curriculum, effective the upcoming academic catalog.

Removes Major/Minor/Emphasis/Certificate from upcoming catalog.

1. Describe your Changes:

We are revising the Human Resource emphasis of our B.S. in Psychology program due to a reduction in the number of HRD courses that will be available to our students beginning in Fall, 2025. The reduction is due to the B.S. in Workforce Development moving from the Crossland College of Technology to the Kelce College of Business. With this move, the 22 HRD courses currently available in the B.S. in Workforce Development will be reduced to nine in the revised and renamed BBA in HRD.

2. Rationale for change, including changes to curriculum objectives:

See item 1 for the rationale. Our curriculum objective remains the same, to offer preparatory coursework relevant to a career path in Industrial/Organizational Psychology or HRD, but students will now have fewer options in course selection due to factors beyond our control. However, an adequate selection of courses will still be available.

3. Will this change affect any education majors? If "yes," this requirement will need approval of the Council for Teacher Education before upload to " College Curriculum Legislation" in SharePoint.

Yes No

4. If this change affects any other department on campus, please attach any email notifications between departments.

5. Does the revision meet University catalog definitions for majors, minors, emphases, and certificates as appropriate?

Yes No

6. Will additional resources or costs will be required?

Yes No

If so, what will be needed?

Definition of an Emphasis

Area of Emphasis is a specific subject area that exists within an approved degree program and major. At Pittsburg State University a minimum of 12 credit hours and no more than 24 credit hours are expected for an area of emphasis in a baccalaureate degree program.

Definition of a Minor

Minors at Pittsburg State University may range from 15 to 24 credit hours. When selected to accompany a degree that requires a minor there must be at least nine unique credit hours in the minor that are not found in the student's major in order to meet graduation requirements. In instances where the major requires a minor (not the degree type), academic departments/schools may specify minors that best achieve the learning objective for their students.

Definition of Certificate Program

A certificate program can be undergraduate or graduate in course content and provides a specific body of knowledge for personal or career development or professional continuing education. Certificates may be taken while also pursuing a degree or independent from any other studies at Pittsburg State University. It is recommended that if the student is only pursuing a certificate and not in conjunction with a degree and wishes to apply for federal financial assistance that they visit with personnel in the Student Financial Assistance office regarding the eligibility for aid for the certificate of interest. At Pittsburg State University a certificate can range from 12 credit hours to 24 credit hours.

Bruce,

I don't anticipate that change causing any issues for us, so I do not have any objection to you adding MGT 530 to your electives.

Paul and Alex, we currently have 27 HRD students. I wouldn't expect more than 4-6 in a given semester, and with it being an elective with a prerequisite, it would likely be less than that most semesters. It sounds like a great course, though!

All the best,

Bruce -

Thanks for checking with us. I'm copying this to Alex Binder, our Faculty Chair, who has been keeping track of a lot of our curricular changes that are currently working their way through the legislative process. I do not believe that your request influences any of them, but it would be best to get Alex's opinion as he also sets our target course enrollment levels. If this goes onto your elective list for the emphasis, I am assuming that our expected share of enrollments would be limited to a very small number in any semester. Is there any way you could estimate that number? How many students are in the emphasis overall?

Subject: Request to add MGT 530 to Psychology & Counseling HRD emphasis as an elective

Hello Dr. Grimes:

We are revising our undergraduate HRD emphasis, which currently includes a mix of HRD and MGT courses, and we would like to add MGT 530, Advanced Organizational Behavior, as an elective in the emphasis. We would anticipate that doing so would produce a small, easily managed enrollment increase for MGT 530--likely no more than a handful. The HRD emphasis is taken by students who have interests in pursuing careers in either HRD or I/O psychology.

We would be interested in your response and whether your college would have any concerns about us adding the course to our emphasis. I have attached a working draft of our proposal without MGT 530 in it. If there are no objections, it would be added to the electives section. Our students would of course be expected to take the prerequisite course, MGT 330.

Thank you,
Bruce

Our HRD prefix is remaining as is, nothing is changing in that regard.

Hope this helps.

Hi Krissy, one question I do have for you is whether you would want our undergraduates in HRD 706. I was told in the past that your program wanted to reserve 700-level courses for graduate students.

Thanks for the information.

Area of Emphasis is a specific subject area that exists within an approved degree program and major. At Pittsburg State University a minimum of 12 credit hours and no more than 24 credit hours are expected for an area of emphasis in a baccalaureate degree program.

Definition of a Minor

Minors at Pittsburg State University may range from 15 to 24 credit hours. When selected to accompany a degree that requires a minor there must be at least nine unique credit hours in the minor that are not found in the student's major in order to meet graduation requirements. In instances where the major requires a minor (not the degree type), academic departments/schools may specify minors that best achieve the learning objective for their students.

A certificate program can be undergraduate or graduate in course content and provides a specific body of knowledge for personal or career development or professional continuing education. Certificates may be taken while also pursuing a degree or independent from any other studies at Pittsburg State University. At Pittsburg State University a certificate can range from 12 credit hours to 24 credit hours.
