Course Syllabus for
ENGL 101 English Composition

Pitt State Pathway Mission Statement:

The Pitt State Pathway curriculum serves as the heart of the university education by fostering interdisciplinary competencies that typify the educated person. It is designed to facilitate the development of key proficiencies including communication and information literacy. The Pitt State Pathway curriculum provides a transformational experience that challenges students to think creatively and critically, and to immerse themselves in the productive examination of humans in their global setting. By encouraging the development of skills that promote life-long learning, the Pitt State Pathway fosters a sense of personal responsibility, an appreciation of diversity, and an understanding of interconnectedness in our truly global society.

Pitt State Pathway Core Element to be Covered in this Course:

Written Communication:

Demonstrates a thorough understanding of context relating to appropriate audiences and explains the writer's and others' ideas skillfully and ethically through written language that conveys meaning to readers with clarity and accuracy, and is nearly error free. Competency in this element means:

- Clearly outlining the main idea using appropriate sentence structure that connects all paragraphs to the overall point of the paper while organizing ideas effectively. Ideas are presented in a logical sequence that supports development of the main point (Focus, Development, and Organization);
- Supporting claims with appropriate evidence and valid reasoning. Opinions are clearly distinguished. Main ideas are developed through evidence-based sources that clearly distinguish the source material from the writer's own ideas and distinctly indicates the provenance of all source material (Development and Use of Sources);
- Creating effective and coherent sentences. Written language conveys meaning to readers with clarity and fluency. Word choice and vocabulary shows attention to audience (Style and Editing);
- Demonstrating audience awareness in written document. Intended purpose of the document is clear. The context for the communication is understood and articulated appropriately (Focus, Development, Organization, Style, Editing, and Use of Sources);
- Demonstrating the use of visual and textual design elements that are appropriate for the audience, purpose, and context (Style).
