Committee Reports:

Dr. Clemensen shared that he had reached out to the Registrar, Melinda Roelfs to see if she would attend to provide an update on graduation, but she was unable to attend due to another obligation. However, Dr. Clemensen shared the following information that she provided:

- The spring ceremonies will be similar to how they were in the fall.
- There will be five ceremonies: On Friday, May 13th there will be two ceremonies for the College of Technology, one for the College of Business and two for the College of Education. On Saturday, May 14th there will be two ceremonies for the College of Arts and Sciences. All ceremonies will include both undergraduate and graduate students.
- Graduates will check in at the Plaster Center along with ticketed guest that will walk with the graduates.
- Additional guest will be seated in the arena.
- Students will start in the Plaster Center where opening remarks will be given by Dr. Scott, then they will enter the arena, cross the stage, and then will exit from the southeast corner of the arena.
- Graduate students will be hooded on the stage.

Dr. Speelman moved to adjourn, Dr. Jayawardhana seconded and the motion carried.

The next meeting will be Wednesday, April 13, 2022
