

Graduate Student Advisory Council Minutes
Kansas 1 and Zoom
December 11, 2025

1. Meeting Minutes:

Minutes will be available on the GSAC website at a later date.

2. There were no reports from programs

3. Committee Reports:

University Committees:

- Academic Honesty Committee-Megan Loudermilk- no report
- Library Services Committee- Humas Sindhu- not in attendance
- GenAI Task Force- Marci Heatherly- Marci Heatherly-not in attendance

GSAC Committees:

- Communication Committee-no report
- Events Committee-Megan Loudermilk shared that she would like everyone to start brainstorming ideas and then to touch base again in the spring.

4. New Business:

- Regalia for the organization- Megan Loudermilk expressed interest in having some sort of cord or stole for GSAC members to wear at graduation. Lisa Allen will check with the Registrar to see if there are any policies or requirements for organizations that would like to have cords or stoles.
- Funding for committees- Megan Loudermilk asked what kind of funding was available for the events committee, for example. Lisa Allen shared that funding is available and typically a proposal that outlines a plan for the event that includes an approximate cost is presented for approval of funds.
- How do committees want to meet? Scheduled times? How do we want to communicate? - There was discussion on when committees could meet with the option to meet after GSAC meetings. Lisa Allen mentioned that there is a GSAC canvas group that could be utilized for discussion items.
- Spring semester meetings continue with first Thursday of the month. -The council decided not to have a meeting in January since the spring semester doesn't start until mid-January. Meetings will resume on the first Thursday of the month beginning in February.

5. Old Business:

- GA Directory Updates- There was discussion on the best way to reach out to departments to see if they would be willing to add graduate assistants to their department webpages where other contacts for the department are located.

6. The meeting was adjourned.