

GSAC – Graduate Student Advisory Council Meeting

February 7, 2012, 3:30 p.m.

Collegiate Room – Overman Student Center

Minutes

- Welcome/Introductions-
 - Members present: Lora Winters, Anna Beth Gilmore, Dustin Wiley, Nate Morris, Tom Rush, Brenda Roberts and B.B. Stotts
- Review of Event: February 1, 2012 at 5:30 p.m. – GSAC Informational Gathering
 - Time: The time worked well for several classes already meeting on that evening.
 - Date: The beginning of the semester worked well.
 - Program: Having a presentation from the graduate office and from the writing center helped to answer several questions students may have had and helped to keep things moving.
 - Attendance: 38 people
 - Other: The cost of food was $103.25 and posters to advertise the event were approximately $30.
 - Possible things to consider next year:
 - Overall the planning for this gathering worked well, so stick with this format.
 - Meet this semester to set a date and make plans for an informational gathering in the fall.
 - Survey the next group to see how they heard about the Gathering. Prepare a short survey to pass out at the end of the presentation.
- Review applications - request for student funding – conference attendance
 - Nicholas Born, Psychology major – Kansas Association of Marriage and Family Therapy – 2012 Annual Clinical Conference, March 1-3, 2012 in Overland Park,
 - Dayne Riley, English major – Regional Graduate Student Literature Conference, KSU, Manhattan, KS, April 14, 2012 – Presenting a Paper
 - Evans Adams, Psychology major - Kansas Association of Marriage and Family Therapy – 2012 Annual Clinical Conference, March 1-3, 2012 in Overland Park, KS
 - The decision was made to approve all 3 funding requests: $150 for N.Born and E. Adams and $200 for D. Riley
- The promotional magnet is continuing to be worked on
- Discussed ways to recruit new members including passing out flyers and talking to department chairs about possible GSAC members.
- New Business/For the Good of the order
 - Next meeting: March 6th, 2012 at 3:30pm.
- Adjournment: 4:15 pm