

Credit Used for a Second Emphasis
Approved by Graduate Council 4/11/12

Students can earn a second emphasis within a major with approval from the academic department and by meeting all admission and conditional requirements. Students must complete the second emphasis' requirements as legislated and listed in the University Catalog. The second emphasis will be noted on the student's transcript if it is completed prior to graduating with the first emphasis.