COVID-19 Paid Leave Information

You may be eligible for COVID-19 paid leave if you are unable to perform your assigned duties during the COVID-19 public health emergency. The federal government recently passed a law that grants paid leave to certain employees impacted by COVID-19.

Employees may qualify for COVID-19 Paid Leave under the following circumstances:

- You have been diagnosed with COVID-19.
- You are experiencing symptoms of COVID-19 and seeking a medical diagnosis.
- You have been advised by a healthcare provider to self-quarantine due to concerns related to COVID-19.
- You are caring for a family member who is subject to quarantine or self-isolation due to COVID-19 and you are unable to perform your job remotely.
- You are required to comply with a recommendation or order of a public health official to self-isolate and are unable to perform your job remotely.
- You must care for a son or daughter under the age of 18 whose school has been closed or whose child care provider is unavailable due to the public health emergency.

If you think you may qualify for COVID-19 Paid Leave, complete the COVID-19 Leave Request Form and email it to payroll@pittstate.edu or mail to PSU Human Resource Services, 1701 S. Broadway, Pittsburg, KS 66762.
