Eligibility Requirements. In order to qualify for the employee must present written evidence from a qualified professional verifying their disability to the Director of Institutional Equity. All documentation received is confidential and will be kept in the Director's office. The federal definition is as follows:

A person with a disability:

- 1. has a mental or physical impairment which substantially limits one or more of such person's major life activities;
- 2. has a record of such an impairment; or
- 3. is regarded as having such an impairment.

"Major life activities" includes functions such as caring for one's self, performing manual tasks, sleeping, walking, standing, lifting, bending, speaking, breathing, learning, reading, concentrating, thinking, communicating and working. It also includes "the operation of major bodily functions" such as functions of the bowel system; normal cell growth; and digestive, bowel, bladder, neurological, brain, respiratory, circulatory, endocrine and reproductive functions.

PITTSBURG STATE UNIVERSITY DOCUMENTATION OF DISABILITY FOR EMPLOYEES

FOR PROFESSIONAL QUALIFIED TO MAKE DIAGNOSIS: The above employee has requested that you complete the following information or provide a written report that addresses all the areas listed to verify their disability. To ensure the provision of reasonable and appropriate services for employees with disabilities who are requesting services, they are required to provide current and comprehensive documentation of their disability. Any information you can provide that offers recommendations for necessary and appropriate auxiliary aids or services, or other accommodation is necessary.

*Note: The Genetic Nondiscrimination Act of 2008 (GINA) prohibits employers and other entities covered by GINA Title II from requesting, or requiring, genetic information of an individual or family member of an individual, except as specifically allowed by this law. "Genetic information," as defined by GINA, includes an individuals family medical history, the results of an individual's or family member's genetic tests, and genetic information of a fetus carried by an individual or an individual's family member or an embryo lawfully held by an individual or family member receiving assistive reproductive services. Please do not include any genetic information when responding to this request for accommodation form.
